√ 0	k. Procurement Division (PD) received a Replenishment Requisition from Supply Division (SD) for 50,000 WANG brand printer ribbons. Initial testing was performed by PD to determine the availability of other ribbons that work properly with the WANG printer. Although not conclusive, the results of initial indicated that two other manufacturer's ribbons will function properly on the WANG printer. Additional testing will be performed on these ribbons. SD has coordinated with Facilities Management Division (FMD) to stock the with the two other ribbons rather than the
